

EMORY STARTUP LAUNCH ACCELERATOR PROGRAM

Call for Applicants (Fall 2019)

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

After a successful 2018 cohort the EMORY STARTUP LAUNCH Accelerator program is now accepting applications from teams for a Fall 2019 cohort. This program, funded by a grant from the Goizueta Creativity and Innovation Initiative, is offered to help early stage founders through a defined process that will help teams rapidly take their ideas and test them with customers to discard, change and build a business model to move the startup forward.

The 10-week program begins October 3rd and is accepting team applications now. It's a free program. The program is open to the entire Emory community, to help build and enhance the Emory student/faculty/ staff/ alumni entrepreneurial spirit by helping create successful startups.

VISIT WWW.EMORYSTARTUP.COM
FOR COMPLETE DETAILS AND TO APPLY

“We are extremely excited to increase our level of support for entrepreneurs across the Emory community, including student, faculty, alumni, and staff. We see the Emory Startup Launch as a central element in these expanded efforts”

~ Robert Kazanjian, Professor of Organization & Management; Senior Associate Dean for Strategic Initiatives