

Register Now for the Influential Mentoring Series (Spring 2024)

The Research Education Core of the Georgia CTSA is offering the Influential Mentoring Series (spring 2024) over Zoom through hour-long, interactive sessions. The six-session series will cover important topics to build mentoring knowledge and skills with a focus on improving and supporting equitable mentorship for diverse trainees. This training series is only for faculty and all sessions will meet on Tuesdays from 12:00-1:00pm:

Dates and Topics include:

- ❑ Jan 9 – Mentoring Definitions, Inclusive Mentorship & Mentoring Teams
- ❑ Jan 16 – Mentoring Tools: IDPs, Mentor Agreements, Mentor Map
- ❑ Feb 13 – Communication and Feedback in Mentorship
- ❑ Feb 27 – Coaching Tips for Mentors
- ❑ March 26 – Building Support for Diverse Mentees: Peer mentoring, Mentoring Pods, Accountability Partners
- ❑ April 16 – Mentorship Tips to Help Mentees: Time Management, Setting Priorities & Saying No

To register for the Influential Mentoring Series: <https://form.jotform.com/232854198654165>

Program Contacts:

- ❑ For questions related to the training content, contact Dr. Dawn Comeau at dcomeau@emory.edu
- ❑ For questions about registration, Zoom links, and other logistics, contact Rachel Hardison at Rachel.Hardison@emory.edu

The training series will be led by Dawn L. Comeau, PhD, MPH, an expert in developing and leading mentor training programs in the US and internationally. Dr. Comeau is the Mentor Training Director for the Georgia CTSA and a Research Professor in the Department of Behavioral Sciences and Health Education (BSHE) at the Rollins School of Public Health at Emory University.